Congratulations OSU ChemEs on closing out the Fall 2017 semester! We’ve all worked some long and hard hours, but winter break is near. There have been a lot of awesome successes for our chapter, so please join me in celebrating! Let’s finish out the semester strong and then get some rest over break. See you next semester.

Seniors of Significance

To be a Senior of Significance is an outstanding accomplishment. The OSU Chemical Engineering family is proud to congratulate Alicia Aguilar, Cassidy Gierhart, Tyler Goldsmith, Tyler Martin, and Joshua Seaburg to be among the top 48 seniors. This award recognizes students who have been exceptional in their studies, leadership, and service. Congratulations, you guys have earned it!

Chemkidz

Thanks to the Chemkidz crew who shared some of their time to do some really fun, educational, and Halloween-themed science experiments at the Wondertorium.

Phillips 66 Design Project

The first senior design project has wrapped up after a long month of living in the Engineering South basement! Thank you to judges from Phillips 66, Stephen Hoak, Gary Miller, and Jordan Burns, for their continued support and spending an entire day to judge the project presentations!

Congratulations to the following winners:

1st Place: Alicia Aguilar, Cassidy Gierhart, Tyler Goldsmith, Tyler Martin
2nd Place: Brad Hassinger, John Hayes, Sydney Hope, Taylor Rackley
3rd Place: Javier Altamirano, Brayden James, Josh Ogg, Josh Seaberg
Special Recognition: Jared Kimbrell, Theresa Lake, Dustin Mauk, Jonathan Ramos
